Fort Hays Staters Battle for Second in CIC

Second place in the CIC race and the first winning season since 1955 are tonight's goals for the Fort Hays State Tigers, as they try to end their conference schedule with a victory over the Washburn University Ichabods.

A victory over the Blues from Topeka will guarantee FHS no less than a tie for second, and

Next Week

The Tigers close their 1962 schedule next Saturday when they travel to Weatherford, Okla., to meet Southwestern Oklahoma State. The Bulldogs are a new opponent on the FHS schedule, as the two schools haven't met in football since 1941. Game time at Weatherford's Milam Stadium will be 8 p.m. The Oklahomans have a 5-3 record going into this week's activity. Keith Cummings will broadcast the play-by-play on KAYS radio.

if Omaha downed Pittsburg this afternoon, the Tigers can gain sole possession of second place. A loss to Washburn, on the other hand, would drop the Tigers to fourth in the final list.

The Bengals can also close an undefeated home slate with a victory tonight. FHS has won three straight at Lewis Field Stadium this year and has a 6-1-1 mark at home over the past two seasons.

The stumbling block, Washburn, brings a 4-4 record to Hays, the school's best since 1957. New Coach Ellis Rainsberger has developed a young, inexperienced team into a spirited, capable squad. The Ichs were traveling at a 4-2 clip until running into setbacks from Pittsburg, 27-0, and Omaha, 41-14.

And the Topekans gained more yards on the ground against the powerful Omaha team than anyone else this season.

Washburn has victories over Colorado College, 20-14; Central Missouri, 20-0; Emporia State, 7-6, and St. Benedict's, 34-13. Losses were to Northeast Missouri, 39-0; Colorado Mines, 34-16, Pitt and Omaha.

Fort Hays State has blanked Northwest Missouri, 21-0; Colorado College, 33-0, and St. Benedict's, 21-0; defeated Pittsburg State, 25-20, and tied Omaha, 20-20. But the Tigers lost at Kearney, Neb., 27-13, and at Emporia, 14-13, for a 4-2-1 record. The last winning record at Hays was 5-3-1, charted by the 1955 club.

In the history of the series, Washburn holds the upper hand with 18 victories in 27 games. FHS won six and three ended in ties. The Tigers prevailed, 14-7, at Topeka last year but had to forfeit later. And many Tiger fans recall Washburn's last trip to Hays in 1960, when the Blues humbled the Bengals, 33-7, when the teams were supposed to be fairly equal.

Pacing the visitors tonight should be clever quarterback Curt Miller, scatback John Pusateri, freshman fullback Frank Pickens, veteran tackle Warren Dobry and senior end Ralph Smith. Senior guard Bob Pfannenstiel, a native of Hays, returns home as a starter on defense.

For the Tigers, two-way starter Larry Dreiling will not play because of a knee injury suffered at St. Benedict's. Also hampered at guard will be Kirk Pope and Jack Hazlett, and defensive tackle Ken Palmgren has been shifted to offensive guard for tonight's play. Backs Royce Hamala and Tim Daniels may also be slowed.

In History

A year ago . . .

FHS punched out a 14-7 victory at Topeka for the Tigers' third consecutive season-ending victory. Dave Parker scored both TDs for FHS, despite playing with multiple injuries, and fullback Steve Worley was the Tigers' top ground-gainer with 91 yards in 22 carries. Washburn's chief threat was Pennsylvanian John Pusateri, who had 59 yards in eight carries.

Five years ago . . .

Coming from behind twice, the Tigers edged Washburn, 19-16, at Topeka. Steady Tiger drives offset long Ichabod runs, and the Bengals got the winning tally with 1:20 to play. Fullback Chuck Vernon was the offensive star with 128 yards rushing, while Darrel Hildebrand scored twice. The victory gave FHS a 4-4 season record.

Ten years ago . . .

Washburn held on to a 20-0 halftime lead to nudge the Tigers, 20-14, in the Homecoming game at Hays. WU dominated in the first half, but FHS roared back to narrowly miss the victory in the final half. A last-minute pass in the end zone bounced off the Tiger receiver's fingers to preserve the WU victory.

FHS Honors Scholarship Donors and Employers

Each football season, Fort Hays State College selects one home game at which to honor the active boosters of Fort Hays State athletics—those local and area businessmen who support the college's athletic program by providing tuition scholarships and employment for Tiger athletes. These Tiger fans are enjoying tonight's action as guests of the college.

Welcome To Our Special Guests

We are happy to have as our guests this evening the friends of Fort Hays State who have for many years contributed generously to our athletic program. The athletic scholarships and the employment offered by these men to the Fort Hays State athletes serve as evidence of their sincere interest in the young men who represent our college. We are most grateful for their fine support.

Guard Jack Hazlett

Guard Jack Hazlett, a 26-year-old defensive specialist, is one of the toughest and most determined gridgers on the '62 Tiger squad. After missing the first game of the season, he has played all fall despite painful injuries, and he has contributed significantly to the tough interior defensive line. A 195-pound junior, he is playing his first season for FHS after transferring from Kansas State University, where he was enrolled in 1956-57 and 1959-60. In high school at Minneapolis, Kansas, Jack was all-state in his senior season, 1953. Jack is an Air Force veteran majoring in physical education at FHS.

WILDCAT!

All new! All muscle! All glamour! That's the '63 Buick WILDCAT! America's only luxury sports car with Advanced Thrust engineering now features three new models—convertible, hardtop, coupe; room for five fullbacks; colorful vinyl bucket seat interior; and an almost neurotic urge to get going! Very definitely for the sports-minded male and his equally adventuresome mate. There's a WILDCAT at your dealer's now—just rarin' for someone like you to give it a brisk workout. Why not take time out to do it this weekend?

1962 Tigers

Lineman K. Palmgren

Lineman Ken Palmgren, a 223-pound junior from Levant, has served the Tigers in several capacities during this 1962 season. Listed as a center on the FHS roster, he has served as the top reserve at that position, backing up starter Jerry Strecker. He has been a starter at defensive tackle all season and leads the interior linemen on the tackle charts. Tonight he may be pressed into action as an offensive guard, due to the gaps left by injury during the past week. Ken, a former all-stater at Brewster High, lettered as a tackle in 1960 but did not play last year. His return has been one of the factors in the Tigers' improved showing this fall. Ken attended Kansas U. before coming to FHS and is majoring in phys ed. He is married.

Linebacker J. Kennis

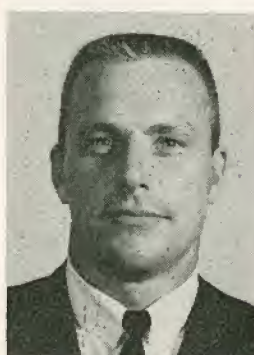

Linebacker Jesse Kennis, a freshman from Phillipsburg, has made an auspicious debut as a college gridder. He is a starter on both offense and defense and is the second ranking tackler on the FHS squad, averaging more than 12 per game. He has been called "a young Jim Lee" by Tiger observers, a tribute both to him and to Lee, the Tigers' top defensive star. Jesse has also seen regular duty as the slot back in the Tiger backfield, where his blocking ability is put to use. A high school fullback, he asked to try out at guard when he came to FHS. The 188-pound stalwart is planning a teaching career.

Tackle Clark Engle, a 219-pound sophomore from Abilene, is one of the reasons Fort Hays State's interior line has performed so well on offense. Clark is one of the top blockers on the squad and has held the starting left tackle spot on the offensive eleven since the season started. He lettered as a freshman in 1960 and earned a starting spot by the end of that season, but he decided not to attend school last year. His return this fall did much to improve the team's line prospects. A 1960 Abilene High graduate, he is married and is majoring in phys ed.

Hays Native Is Among Washburn Standouts

Bob Pfannenstiel, a Hays boy, comes back as a starting defensive guard for the Ichabods.

Ralph Smith, a senior end, is a competitive regular on both offense and defense.

John Pusateri, senior scatback, is the Blues' top running threat and a good pass receiver.

TRY AMERICA'S BEST-SELLING,
BEST-TASTING
FILTER CIGARETTE.

It's what's up front that counts... FILTER-BLEND

Up ahead of a pure white, modern filter, only Winston has FILTER-BLEND - rich, golden tobaccos specially selected and specially processed for the best taste in filter smoking.
